

Redwork patterns are sewn out with one colour

The Silhouette's are one or two colours

Choose any colour that goes with your fabric.

Please remember to hoop and stabilize well as many of these patterns are very large and when patterns call for large areas of one colour there can be a lot of pull so it's very important to have your hoop tight and stabilized.

I use Hoop-it-all hoops with sticky paper and I baste My stabilizer to the sticky paper so that it's held in Place.

Anytime I am going to stitch out with fabric that has stretch in it I iron on freezer paper directly to the back of the fabric in the area to be embroidered.
Even if you are using cut-a-way the wax paper will wash out over a period of time. It keeps the outline exactly where it's supposed to be as it doesn't allow the fabric to move.
