These designs are free standing. Use your favourite water soluble stabilizer. I have the best results with Vilene. Hoop the stabilizer and embroider the design. It should be hooped „drum tight“ – firm but not stiff as a board. When you tap on it there should still be some flexibility otherwise the threads would pull together without being bound properly. It's good to slow down the stitching speed. Always use sharp needle to avoid thread breakage. After embroidering the design, soak it in the water but not too long to keep some stiffness. Lay it flat on towel or between some fabric and iron thoroughly either when dry or while it is still a little bit damp. If you are a beginner, please take a look at the .pdf file named “E-book LACES” that is included in the .zip file. This document shows step-by-step photo instructions of how I work with free-standing laces.
